

AGN. NO. _____

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR MICHAEL D. ANTONOVICH

APRIL 22, 2008

On March 4, the Board of Supervisors directed County Counsel to report back on a number of issues regarding sex offenders including, a legal analysis of Jessica's Law, an overview of sober living/group homes and other residential facilities with 6 or fewer people, a review of the proposed ordinance by the City of Long Beach; and, recommendations and options for our County, including drafting a similar ordinance to that of the City of Long Beach and other appropriate steps to maximize the protection of our communities from sex offenders to the fullest extent under the law.

County Counsel issued its first report regarding Jessica's Law and sober living/group homes on March 18. On April 21, County Counsel issued its second report containing a review of various local ordinances regarding sex offenders as well as a draft ordinance for this Board's consideration. However, before any such ordinance is enacted, County Counsel has advised that a mapping study should be completed to analyze the impact of the regulations on the availability of residential opportunities for sex offenders.

I, THEREFORE MOVE, that the Board of Supervisors direct the Chief Executive Officer, in consultation with the Department of Public Works, Regional Planning and County Counsel, to conduct a mapping study of the impact on the available residential opportunities for sex offenders utilizing the parameters set forth in the attached draft ordinance and report back in 60 days.

ORDINANCE NO. _____

An ordinance amending Title 13 – Public Peace, Morals and Welfare of the Los Angeles County Code, to add Chapter 13.59, to impose residency and loitering restrictions on registered sex offenders in the unincorporated areas of the County of Los Angeles ("County").

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles ordains as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 13.59 is hereby added to Title 13 – Public Peace, Morals and Welfare as follows:

Chapter 13.59

REGISTERED SEX OFFENDERS

Section 13.59.010 Legislative findings.

A. On November 7, 2006, the voters of the State of California overwhelmingly approved Proposition 83, the Sexual Predator Punishment and Control Act, commonly referred to as Jessica's Law, so as to better protect Californians, and in particular, to protect the children of California from sex offenders; and

B. Proposition 83, as codified in subsection (b) of California Penal Code Section 3003.5, prohibits any person who is required to register as a sex offender under Penal Code Section 290 (hereinafter referred to as a "registered sex offender") from residing within 2,000 feet of any public or private school, or any park where children regularly gather; and

C. Proposition 83, as codified in subsection (c) of Penal Code Section 3003.5, authorizes local governments to enact ordinances that further restrict the residency of any registered sex offender; and

D. Subsection (a) of Penal Code Section 3003.5, enacted in 1998 prior to Proposition 83, prohibits registered sex offenders who are on parole to reside in a "single-family dwelling" with another registered sex offender during the parole period, unless those persons are legally related by blood, marriage or adoption. For purposes of this state statute, "single-family dwelling" does not include a residential facility such as a group home that serves six or fewer persons; and

E. There are approximately _____ registered sex offenders in the unincorporated areas of the County, and approximately _____ of these registered sex offenders are on parole; and

F. The County is concerned with recent occurrences within the County and elsewhere in California where multiple registered sex offenders have been residing together in violation of Penal Code Section 3003.5; and

G. By enacting Chapter 13.59, the County intends to eliminate any potential conflict of land uses in residential neighborhoods and to reduce the potential dangers associated with multiple registered sex offenders living near families with children and places where children frequently gather. Chapter 13.59 also regulates the number of registered sex offenders permitted to reside in multiple family dwellings; and

H. In addition to public and private schools and local parks, the County further finds that other public places that children frequently gather, such as child care centers, should also be protected from registered sex offenders; and

I. In order to foster compliance with the intent of this ordinance, Chapter 13.59 also establishes regulations for property owners who rent residential facilities to registered sex offenders; and

J. Based on County data, once this ordinance becomes effective, there will be _____ remaining acres within the County's residential zones where registered sex offenders can still reside; and

K. This ordinance is required for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety of the citizens of the County.
